On Monday, May 20th, Presiding Judge, Gary Nader, Supervising Family Law Judge, Shelly Averill and Court Executive Officer, Arlene Junior will host a Ribbon Cutting Ceremony to mark the grand opening of the Civil Family Courthouse Public Lactation Room.

Sonoma County Superior Court is proud to accommodate nursing mothers by providing a private and comfortable lactation room to use while in the Civil Family Courthouse," says Court Executive Officer, Arlene Junior. The lactation room will be available for persons having business with the court which includes, but is not limited to, attorneys, parties, witnesses, persons reporting for jury service and jurors.

The room is located on the 2nd floor of the Civil Family Courthouse. Signs will be placed in various locations to make sure the public is aware that it is available and how to gain access. Hours are Monday – Friday 8:00 am to 5:00 pm.
